

2021 Artist Form

On Sunday, September 19th, First Unitarian Universalist Church of Wichita will host Ecofest Wichita 2021 as part of a campaign to create environmental awareness and promote sustainability. This sixth annual family-friendly celebration is designed to inspire and empower people to live green. Ecofest will showcase environmental stewardship and eco-innovation through eco-demonstrations, vendors selling upcycled, repurposed, and recycled products, food, earth-friendly art, and fun activities for all ages.

WE INVITE ALL ARTISTS whose art has an environmental message or is based on recycled, repurposed or upcycled products to participate in our unique festival and art show. Artists' eco-conscious pieces will be hung on Thursday, September 9th, and remain on display through Thursday, September 30th. Artworks may be offered for sale with a portion of the purchase price going to First Unitarian Universalist Church. You may choose to pay a 15% commission or $50. Artwork must be comprised primarily of recycled/upcycled/repurposed materials or have an apparent environmental theme.
